GREIG BUCKLE, is the owner and C.E.O of Enigma Pictures and Director of Local Motion Pictures. Since the start of his career in the entertainment industry more than 33 years ago, Greig has earned recognition as one of South Africa's most results-driven producers in the delivery of international and domestic productions.

It was through working on South Africa's first-ever Daily Soap, Egoli, that Greig acquired a solid foundation that set him up for his future as one of the country's most skilled film executives in finance and project management.

Greig recently completed Glasshouse, Dust, An Elephant's Journey and Serpent in the capacity as producer with other producing credits including the Afrikaans feature film Die Ontwaking.

In a freelance capacity Greig has Line produced Lord of War; Starship Troopers; Natalee Holloway; Mr. Bob; Starship Troopers: Marauders; Last House on the Left; Flight of the Storks; Restless, Chronicle and the Dominion Pilot for NBC Universal.

Through his production company, Enigma Pictures, Greig has facilitated and Line produced Shepherds and Butchers, Back To School Mom, Kite, Charlie, King Solomon's Mines, Save Angel Hope, and The Seven Of Daran.

As co-producer, Greig's credits include Against the Wild 2, Global Effect, and Life Above All - which went on to garner the Prix Francois Chalais award in Cannes, and Best South African Feature Film at the Durban International Film Festival – in 2010. It also garnered a record-breaking 7 SAFTA award nominations including 'Best Feature Film', and was presented as South Africa's Official film in the Foreign Language category of the Academy Awards®.

Greig's work in Television includes Heart & Soul, the successful launch of IMBEWU for local TV Station E TV and most recently Blood Psalms for Canal + and Multichoice.
